

Some Free Genealogy Sites

Ancestry Academy: videos to learn about genealogy and Ancestry.com, free on YouTube https://www.youtube.com/results?search_query=ancestry+academy

FamilySearch: You must create a login, but it is free; largest collection of free genealogical records in the world; make sure to look at the Wiki for information on how to do genealogy and for information on genealogical resources for specific places and topics. Owned by the Church of Latter Day Saints.
<https://familysearch.org/>

Cyndi's List: free directory of thousands of free and pay genealogy links
<http://www.cyndislist.com/>

Ancestry Tree: login to create a free family tree on Ancestry.com.
<https://www.ancestry.com/family-tree/>

US GenWeb Project: genealogy resources in the U.S. by country, state and county
<http://www.usgenweb.org/>

WorldGenWeb Project: genealogy resources by country and region
<http://www.worldgenweb.org/>

US National Archives: tools and government records, Veterans' records
<http://www.archives.gov/research/genealogy>

Ellis Island: immigration records, free indexes and original records, there is a fee for copies but not to print
<https://www.libertyellisfoundation.org/passenger>

Civil War Soldiers and Sailors Database: from the National Park Service
<http://www.nps.gov/civilwar/soldiers-and-sailors-database.htm>

Patriot and Grave Index: revolutionary war graves registry and patriot index from the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution
<http://patriot.sar.org/>

Google News Archive: millions of archived newspaper pages from all over the world; make sure to return to the page after looking through your results
<https://news.google.com/newspapers>

Billion Graves: locate your ancestors in cemeteries across the globe
<https://billiongraves.com/>

Find a Grave: locate your ancestors in cemeteries across the globe
<http://www.findagrave.com/>